

2020 Good Neighbor Award Winner

2020 Award Winner:
Bonnie Brandt

In recognition of lifetime service and dedication through volunteerism, virtue, civic engagement, and creativity to meet community needs.

Bonnie Brandt is the fourth recipient of the city's annual Good Neighbor Award. Bonnie was nominated by her neighbor, Erica Swenson. Erica stated in her nomination that she believed Bonnie is the epitome of a good neighbor. Bonnie is known for being welcoming, helpful, and caring to all members of the community.

Her work in the community includes volunteering as a babysitter for parents who have meeting obligations or just need some alone time. Bonnie enjoys participating in the community in any way that she can. She is known as her neighborhood's social butterfly, planning games and crafts for all to enjoy. Bonnie also makes a point to remember everyone's birthdays and never forgets a holiday to make everyone feel special.

She is truly an example of how we are better together! Thank you, Bonnie, for your patience, experience, compassion, knowledge, and dedication to the people of Maple Plain.
