

2021 Good Neighbor Award Winner

Chuck and Judy Sutherland are the fifth recipients of the city's annual Good Neighbor Award. Chuck and Judy were nominated by JoAnn Ree. JoAnn shared that the Sutherlands are lifetime residents and business owners of Maple Plain. The neighborly deeds of Chuck and Judy extend beyond 60 years in the community.

The services that the Sutherlands have provided for the Maple Plain community is extensive. They host an annual Night to Unite party in their neighborhood, Judy has volunteered for Maple Plain City Days and the Trails to the Libraries program and is an original member of the Maple Plain Historical Committee. Chuck is heavily involved with the Maple Plain Museum, decorating it for the holidays and making repairs when needed.

The Sutherlands are truly an example of how we are better together! Thank you, Chuck and Judy, for your patience, experience, compassion, knowledge, and dedication to the people of Maple Plain.
