

2022 Good Neighbor Award Winner

2022 Award Winner:
Paul Stinson American Legion Post 514

In recognition of lifetime service and dedication through volunteerism, virtue, civic engagement, and creativity to meet community needs.

The Paul Stinson American Legion Post 514 are the sixth recipient of the city's annual Good Neighbor Award. This group was nominated by Julie Maas-Kusske. Julie shared that the Paul Stinson American Legion Post 514 is made up of a committed group of veterans that volunteer numerous hours serving veterans, the community, and the Orono School District in various ways. This group has been operating in the Maple Plain community since 1924.

The services that the Paul Stinson American Legion Post 514 have provided for the Maple Plain community are extensive. They host the annual Memorial Day service at Lewis Cemetery, present the colors at various community events including the Orono Homecoming Football game, and perform military honors for veteran's funerals when requested by family.

The Paul Stinson American Legion Post 514 truly exemplify what the Good Neighbor Award is meant to represent, caring for and serving the community. Thank you, Paul Stinson American Legion Post 514, for your patience, experience, compassion, knowledge, and dedication to the people of Maple Plain.
